

Addition Art.14 Disputes

In contrary to the appropriate general conditions applies that all disputes arising concerning the concluded agreement of Vitro Plus or for that any resulting further agreements, or offers to this end, will be made pending at a competent judge of Middelburg, or for the choice of Vitro Plus, at a competent judge of the place of residence or business of the defendant or the place of where the goods were delivered.

If Vitro Plus chooses to involve the defendant into a legal procedure in front of another judge then the judge in Middelburg, Vitro Plus has furthermore the right to implementation of the Dutch Law or the right of the country where the legal procedure will be made pending.